Are We Listening?

After a recent sermon, I began thinking about the story of Mary and Martha. Am I listening or am I being pulled away by worldly things?

Yes, we all get distracted by work deadlines, errands, family obligations and other worldly things! It only takes a moment to get distracted-pulled from God. But we need to stop and listen. We just need a little quiet time to get back on track.

One of my favorite bible verses is, "Be Still And Know That I Am God"
Psalm 46:10.

The world will always be fighting for our attention and will pull us away many times over. We just need to remember that God is on our side, and He is there all the time to help us with our problems. Our great creator knows our heart and desires, we just need to reach out to Him to lead us in His way.

We all have our "Martha" moments when priorities get the better of us, but we just need to be still like "Mary" and listen. Not only listening to God, but sometimes we need to be the one to listen to others.

"Yet you, Lord, are our Father. We are the clay, you are the potter; we are all the work of your hand." Isaiah 64:8

Get back on His Pathway. Stop and listen to God for He has the answers!

Blessings,

Amy Emerson
