Why I Love Coming to Church

As a Christian, I desire to grow in Christ. However, I cannot do this by myself. In God's grace He has granted His people particular means to help us grow in the grace and knowledge of His Son. If I am going to grow in my trust, love and obedience to Christ I must make use of the means He has provided. These are no means found and practiced in isolation, but rather within the church.

Heb. 10:24-25 says, "And let us consider how we may spur one another on toward love and good deeds, not giving up meeting together, as some are in the habit of doing, but encouraging one another—and all the more as you see the Day approaching".

I love the church because of the preaching of God's Word, the fellowship with other believers, the times of prayer and the celebrating of the Lord's Table. All these properly used are a means in growing in Christ. This is what defined the early Church, and this is not done in isolation, but with the church.

I love going to church. Not because it is something to do or because I think I'm better than anyone else. I love going to church because the church belongs to Christ, the church collectively worships Christ, and because the church is a means in which I can grow in Christ. As a Christian, you are a part of the Church, so love your local church and passionately attend and participate knowing that it is a privilege.
