

I Made It (Parts 1&2)

By Rev. Gregory Perkin Bowen

I've been through the storm and rain, but I made it. You ask me how, I don't know but I made it. I've had so many ups and downs & I know how it feels to be almost on the ground. Thank you Jesus, oh I made it. The mountains been a little too high but I made it. My friends have made me cry, yes but I made it. I've shed so many tears, there were times I wish I wasn't here. Thank you Jesus, oh I made it. I didn't know my day from night, oh but I made it. I didn't believe things were going to be alright, yes but I made it. I told the Lord to send me some help, I didn't want to be in the world all by myself. Hallelujah, yes I made it. I've been sick, sick as I could be but I made it. All of my loved ones, they got tired of me but I still made it. I took my Master's hand and I joined the Holy Ghost band. Hallelujah, oh I made it.

I've spent many nights alone but I made it. I had no peace in the streets and no peace at home, oh but somehow I made it. I asked the Lord to be my friend cause all my friends left me when things got a little thin. Thank you Jesus, oh I made it. I've been down to my very last dime, but I made it. I've been hungry many, many times, yes but I still made it. I drank from that old bitter cup. I got tired but I never gave up. Hallelujah, oh yes, I made it. My life was such a bore but I made it. I had folks tell me, Greg, I don't love you no more, oh but I still made it. The road been awfully rough and the going has been real, real, real tough but through it all, oh, I made it.

Psalm 23

The LORD is my shepherd; I shall not want.
He makes me to lie down in green pastures;
He leads me beside the still waters.
He restores my soul;
He leads me in the paths of righteousness
For His name's sake.
Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil;
For You are with me;
Your rod and Your staff, they comfort me.
You prepare a table before me
in the presence of my enemies;
You anoint my head with oil;
My cup runs over.
Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me
All the days of my life;
And I will dwell in the house of the Lord forever.
