

Sacred Ground Series at St. Andrew's

Where do we go from here?

Possible Next Steps

- Start/continue a dialogue group or book study at church or on your own.
- Participate in local events (MLK Day, forums and lectures, etc.).
- Educate yourself and your family through conversations, books, and films.
- Subscribe to relevant podcasts, Facebook pages, blogs, etc.
- Volunteer in church ministries that promote cross-racial engagement and encounter (NEST, Laundry Love, HUBB, Mission of the Holy Spirit, etc.).
- Support local, state, and national organizations working for racial justice (see the list below).
- Speak up when friends, relatives, colleagues, or strangers say racially-biased or offensive things. Practice being an upstander rather than a bystander.
- Help us organize future speakers/movie nights/book studies at church.
- Visit museums that feature exhibits on racial history.
- Evaluate and speak out about racial dynamics/policies in your neighborhood, community, schools, church, places of business, etc.
- Support the emerging Latino/Latina/Latinx ministry of our diocese.
- Visit spaces and businesses in town that are owned or frequented by people of color – restaurants, small businesses, theaters, etc.
- Learn about local issues affecting people of color and be an advocate.
