The Episcopal Church of the Good Shepherd
Venice, FL

Our Mission:

To know Christ and to make Him and His love known throughout our communities.

To be a learning community of faith, dedicated to becoming Jesus' disciples at this time and place. We learn from weekly sermons based on scripture, in various study groups, and in our small groups (our Fellowship Flocks).

We emphasize hospitality and being a welcoming community, and we believe evangelism is best done following the Celtic model as described in The Celtic Way of Evangelism by G. G. Hunter III - Establish Fellowship; Engage in Ministry; Invite Belief and Commitment.

We take seriously the mission to make Christ's love known to others through various ministries to our communities, and through the way we interact with each other individually, as well as tending to the pastoral needs of our parish.

O Lord, you have taught us that without love whatever we do is worth nothing; Send your Holy Spirit and pour into our hearts your greatest gift, which is love, the true bond of peace and of all virtue, without which whoever lives is accounted dead before you. Grant this for the sake of your only Son Jesus Christ, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, now and forever. Amen.

Collect for the 7th Sunday after Epiphany.

Who We Are

We are friends and neighbors who love God and our church and are learning to love as Christ loves us. Like most Floridians, we have arrived from other parts of our country and Canada. Some of us are permanent residents, and many are seasonal, as you might expect.

We have experienced a wide history and variety of church experiences - from high to low, Anglican to contemporary, Roman Catholic to Lutheran, Baptist to Evangelical. We are on a journey of faith, and we are followers of Christ - first and last. We adhere to the Anglican principle of Scripture, Tradition, and Reason as the basis for understanding the Holy Scriptures.

Not surprisingly, we are a congregation of seniors. Venice is one of the oldest populations in the United States. However, we are an active and involved congregation. Most of us find that we are busier in retirement than when we were raising families and working 40 or more hours a week.

OUR HISTORY

The vision and establishment of our church was inspired by Father Cal Davis of St. Mark's Episcopal Church, on the island in Venice, Florida, and the Venerable Hoyt Massey, Archdeacon of the Diocese of Southwest Florida. In 1988, thirty-three members initially responded to the calling to start a new mission church in South Venice.

October 22, 1988	Our first Holy Eucharist service as an unorganized mission was celebrated by the Venerable Hoyt Massey, in the Venice YMCA.
October 14, 1989	We became an organized mission, originally named All Saints.
October 29, 1990	We acquired the five-acre property at 1115 Center Road, Venice.
July 1, 1991	Our first Vicar, the Rev. David Klein, was called.
September 5, 1991	A Building Committee was formed.
October 22, 1993	We were re-named the Episcopal Church of the Good Shepherd.
January 1, 1994	Construction of the original Parish Hall complex began.
June 5, 1994	The first Holy Eucharist was celebrated in the Parish Hall by Fr. Klein.
October 22, 1994	The Parish Hall was dedicated by the Rt. Rev. Rogers S. Harris.
April 9, 1995	The All Saints Memorial Garden was consecrated by the Rt. Rev. Teleford A. Issac, Assistant Bishop.
December 3, 2005	The Church of the Good Shepherd, Venice, was admitted as a full parish at the 37 th Annual Convention of the Diocese of Southwest Florida, the Rt. Rev. John B. Lipscomb, Bishop, presiding. Our Vicar, the Rev. Dick Lampert, became our first Rector.
April 23, 2006	The Parish Hall was named Lampert Hall in honor of the Rev. Richard and Molly Lampert.
April 22, 2014	The Episcopal Church of the Good Shepherd Endowment Fund was created.
February 21, 2016	A major repair and renovation of the building was dedicated by the Rt. Rev. Michael Garrison.

Where We Live & Move & Have Our Being...

Good Shepherd Episcopal Church is located in beautiful Sarasota County in the city of Venice. Venice is a city on Florida's Gulf Coast known for Venice Beach, with its offshore coral reef, and Caspersen Beach, where shark teeth are often found.

The Venice area is also a mecca for outdoor enthusiasts. Beyond a good swim on the beach, there is boating, fishing, kayaking, birding, hiking and bicycling on countless trails and surrounding preserves. Venice is blessed with an unusually large number of surrounding nature areas, including Oscar Scherer State Park, Carlton Reserve, Sleeping Turtles and Deer Prairie Creek Preserves, the Myakka State Forest and one of the only officially-designated "Wild and Scenic" waterways in Florida, the Myakka River. The area also features a bicycling and walking trail extending from Venice all the way to Sarasota.

Venice is tucked away about 20 miles south of Sarasota in Southwest Florida. Voted one of the Top 10 Happiest Seaside Towns 2015 by Coastal Living, it has much to offer. Venice was once the winter home of the Ringling Brothers & Barnum & Bailey Circus.

The climate is subtropical with a substantial Gulf influence. Summers are long, warm, and humid, with afternoon highs of 90 or more and warm evenings in the 70s. Afternoon sea breezes and frequent thunderstorms moderate temperatures. Winters are quite mild with temperatures in the 60's and 70's and lows rarely below 50. Invasions of cold northern air produce an occasional light frost and a cold winter morning or two.

Arts & Culture

The Venice Theatre isn't just one of the largest and most active community theatres in the United States, it is also the venue for cabarets, musicals, dramas, comedies, and cutting-edge contemporary productions.

Performances may range from Dream Girls, to The Grapes of Wrath, or the latest offering from The Capitol Steps.

Venice Theater

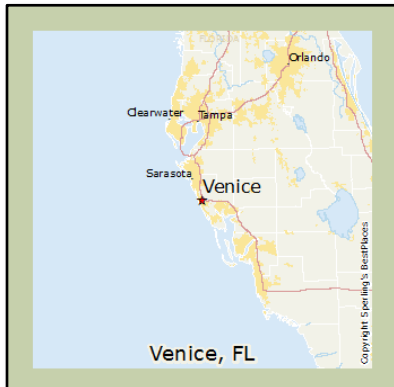

The Venice Performing Arts Center's 1,090 seat multi-level auditorium is home to The Venice Symphony, The Venice Concert Band, The Venice Chorale, the Venice Institute for Performing Arts, and the Venice High School Performing Arts Department. At the Venice Art Center you can stroll through the latest exhibition, enjoy an evening of live blues or jazz, listen to a mid-day lecture, or even sign up for a class on watercolors, pottery, or jewelry making.

The Years Ahead for Venice and North Port – West Villages

Sarasota County is one of the fastest growing housing areas in the United States, spurred by new development in Venice and North Port. This development includes an area known as "West Villages," on Venice's southern border where there are plans for more than 20,000 homes.

Gran Paradiso in the West Villages

The new spring training facility for the Atlanta Braves celebrated their grand opening at the Cool Today Park with the final spring training baseball game in late March. Several community events will be held there throughout the year, including concerts, fireworks, movies, etc.

In the short run, the growing population provides an opportunity for Good Shepherd to extend its reach to welcome new members. In the long run, this growth may provide Good Shepherd with an opportunity to help develop new ministries in the West Villages.

Sarasota – Cultural Capital of Florida

Ask anyone to describe life in Sarasota and it's likely you'll hear "arts and culture" in their very first sentence. Beyond being known for their beaches,

Sarasota Opera House

Sarasota County is a community rich with live theater, concerts, ballet, opera, galleries, museums and even the circus! "Sarasota is clearly the cultural mecca of Florida," explained Jim Shirley, Executive Director of the Arts and Cultural Alliance. "There are few communities in the nation that have the depth and quality of arts and cultural offerings that are found here."

Commonly referred to as the Culture Coast of Florida, Sarasota's rich arts scene rivals some of the largest urban settings in the country. Sarasota is home to dozens of performing arts groups including theaters, professional symphony, ballet and opera, over 30 art galleries, and artist communities.

The Ringling Museum of Art boasts having one of the largest collections of Peter Paul Rubens paintings and a spectacular Circus display. There are numerous art festivals, and the Van Wezel Performing Arts Hall features everything from Broadway productions to lectures from renowned world leaders.

Our Worship

Worship at Good Shepherd could be described as "broad." Our liturgies consist of a combination of the traditional Rite I and Rite II; and a more informal "Rite III" (BCP p. 400).

Typically, our 8 AM Sunday morning service is a Rite I service. Rite II is usually the order for the 10 o'clock Sunday service with our Organist/Choir Director, Chuck Bradley, and the Good Shepherd Choir providing music to enhance our worship experience. The choir customarily serves from September through May.

On the second and fourth Wednesdays of each month, a Rite II Holy Eucharist with Healing Prayers and Holy Unction is celebrated in our Good Shepherd Chapel. If there is a fifth Wednesday, Morning Prayer is the liturgy along with Healing Prayers and Anointing.

For the past two summers, we have held only one Sunday morning service at 9 AM, alternating between Rite I (with and without music) and Rite II.

Often in the summer, with this summer of 2019 being no exception, we have added a 5 PM Saturday informal Eucharist with prayer and praise. The music is what is often termed "renewal" music, accompanied by guitar, harp and other instruments when available. This celebration often includes an "interactive" homily with both priest and congregation participating in discussing the lessons of the day.

The liturgical seasons of Advent, Christmas, Epiphany, Lent, Easter and Pentecost are richly filled with special celebrations of appropriate worship. Examples are the Festival of Advent and/or Christmas Lessons and Carols; Taize services, Ash Wednesday, Tenebrae, Holy Week Liturgies, the Great Vigil of Easter. And, every year, we always celebrate our cherished pets by blessing them on the feast of St. Francis.

THE FUTURE AT GOOD SHEPHERD

Our Rector's retirement has provided us an opportunity to seriously think about God's plan for our church. What are we called to do as disciples of Jesus Christ in this uncertain secular world? We realize we have challenges:

- We are a community of older parishioners. We lack age and racial diversity. It isn't what we want, but a product of the makeup of our retirement community.
- We must continually add new members, just to stay at a stable size, as we periodically lose parishioners to infirmity and death.
- At the same time, we have a wonderful opportunity to grow, as we are experiencing some of the most rapid housing development in the nation right around us.

Our search for a new Rector was kicked off with a parish-wide online survey. 135 parishioners responding to an email invitation sent to 185. This 73% response rate is well above the norm for similar online church surveys, indicating we have a very involved, interested and engaged congregation. To view a summary of the survey results, please see the attached deck from the presentation to the congregation:

https://bloqs.s3.amazonaws.com/1282-8091/366595_SurveyPresentationtoTownHallMtg20180519.pdf

Question 11 on the survey asked respondents to select whether they were "very satisfied" or "generally satisfied" with how our church has been doing in its performance of 16 typical church tasks. If respondents were not satisfied, they could indicate the task "needs more emphasis" or "receives too much emphasis."

An overwhelming number of parishioners were satisfied with the church's performance. Thirteen of the 16 tasks were ranked as satisfactory by 70% or more of the respondents. The 3 remaining tasks were viewed as needing more emphasis:

- 57% would like to see more emphasis placed on providing Christian education for children and youth in our community.
- 45% would like to see more emphasis placed on participating in activities and programs with other local religious groups.
- 32% would like to see more emphasis placed on sharing the good news of the Gospel with the unchurched.

For complete details, you may view the attachment entitled "Parish Survey Exhibit."

The Vestry is taking on the challenge of discerning how God might have Good Shepherd seek to better emphasize these tasks, while, at the same time, continue to meet the other needs for which parishioners are currently satisfied. As a result of our parish survey, town hall meeting and Vestry deliberations, we seek to make the following commitments for the future of our church and community:

- This opportunity supports the call of Jesus to reach out beyond our walls to bring the Gospel to those people who have stepped away from their Christian family and beliefs. We want to start a ministry that seeks to reach out to the unchurched in our community...people in their 50's, 60's and 70's who might have been brought up in church, but left their religion behind when they went off to college, started a career and raised a family. Maybe they left because they were angry or disappointed with the church on many levels. Maybe they went to church on Christmas and Easter but were just too busy to even think about having an active church life. Or, maybe they just didn't think about it at all. Now that they are retiring and moving to Florida, they will have a chance to consider their lives, their mortality and their relationship with God. We will reach out to them and invite them back. We will welcome them to Good Shepherd – a place where God is calling them home – and we might want to be His messengers.
- Responding to our self-study, we also want to explore ways to serve the children and youth. For example, retired educators in our congregation are eager to develop an outreach program to provide tutoring and other learning assistance.

We are seeking a new rector to lead us on this journey of discipleship in faithful service to our Lord and Savior.

Our Facilities

In addition to our worship area – Sanctuary, Nave, and Chapel – we are blessed with a parish hall that seats approximately 150 people, a fully equipped kitchen, two classrooms, a parish library/meeting room and two office spaces – one for the parish administrator and bookkeeper and a private office for the rector.

Our grounds are graced by the All Saints Memorial Garden, created in 1994. The vision was to provide a simple, dignified space for the interment of cremated remains of loved ones of the Good Shepherd parish family. The area is maintained by a dedicated crew of volunteers who plant, prune, water and tend to the needs of the garden through each season of the year.
