

THE GOSPEL & RACE

PART 2

So if there is any encouragement in Christ, any comfort from love, any participation in the Spirit, any affection and sympathy, 2 complete my joy by being of the same mind, having the same love, being in full accord and of one mind. Do nothing from selfish ambition or conceit, but in humility count others more significant than yourselves. 4 Let each of you look not only to his own interests, but also to the interests of others.

GALATIANS 2:11-14

And there came a voice to him: "Rise, Peter; kill and eat." But Peter said, "By no means, Lord; for I have never eaten anything that is common or unclean." And the voice came to him again a second time, "What God has made clean, do not call common." This happened three times, and the thing was taken up at once to heaven

This assignment is meant to demonstrate white privilege, especially white normativity and white transparency. It should not be a big deal, for an assignment, to refer to white people as white people for a few hours. It is not for most non-whites, unless they are talking to whites (they fear retribution or expressions of shock). It almost always is for whites, no matter who they are talking to, for the assignment violates the boundaries of white normativity and white transparency.

-MICHAEL O. EMERSON

COLORBLIND

After this I looked, and behold, a great multitude that no one could number, from every nation, from all tribes and peoples and languages, standing before the throne and before the Lamb, clothed in white robes, with palm branches in their hands, ¹⁰and crying out with a loud voice, "Salvation belongs to our God who sits on the throne, and to the Lamb
