

Domestic Violence Awareness

2024
Community
Education
Series

Rising together through education

Join us in OCTOBER for our series to raise awareness of domestic violence.

Our speakers will share on topics such as: what DV looks like, who it impacts, resources to prevent and heal, and education for change.

Classes are 6:00 - 8:30 with a Q & A discussion time included.

625 S 4th Street,
Renton, WA 98057

Scan here to register for each class!

OCT

1

Tuesday

Tina Harris: Renton Police Department - Victim Services/Peer Domestic Violence in Our Community from a System Based Advocate

Discussion on the power & control of abusive relationships, the barriers to services and the social misconceptions of "why don't they just leave". Also exploring challenges in the legal system: making a report, getting a protection order, or filing for a parenting plan.

OCT

8

Tuesday

Chelle Hunsinger de Enciso, King County Prosecutor's Office- Protection Orders: Myths, Facts and the Filing Process

Protection Orders are valuable tools, but unfortunately there are many misconceptions about how to obtain them, what they can do, and what their limitations are. In this presentation, we will examine common myths, explain the filing process, and see how recent changes in law have increased survivors' options.

OCT

15

Tuesday

Daniel Won: The Real Time Dynamics - Firearm Safety: The Greatest Equalizer

With crime on the rise, more law-abiding citizens are learning to protect themselves and their loved ones. You don't have to be a helpless victim. Come learn firearm safety in a fun and engaging class at the Renton Chamber of Commerce. Sign up today!

OCT

22

Tuesday

Julia Valencia: Raider Tactical - Mindset and Awareness, Safety Planning & Tactics, Use of Force

Julia has been involved in training for more than two decades. As an active leader in a local Law Enforcement Agency, she will bring her expertise, education and experience to give you the tools to prepare and plan your own safety program. Dress comfortably, as there will be activities to participate in self defense tactics.

OCT

29

Tuesday

Mick Jolly, Risk Solutions Unlimited - DV Prevention Recognizing you are in a potential DV relationship

Learn about resources and services to help you recognize the red flags. It will involve vetted resources for men and women going through it, as well as topics to avoid as to prevent yourself from getting caught in the invisible prison that DV can put you in.

