FAITH FORMATION

Dear Friends,

Once we have encountered Jesus and have made the decision to turn from the world to become his follower, we become his disciples. The term "disciple" originally means a pupil (of a teacher) or an apprentice (to a master craftsman). Disciple is another word for follower, one who is learning to be like his Master.

Sometimes it is misunderstood that you become a disciples of Jesus when He has forgiven your sins or when we have received atonement for our sins and are reconciled with God through Jesus' death. That is in fact the starting point in becoming a disciple. We are to give up our own will, or as Jesus put it, our own life, which is the inclination to sin that is inherent in our human nature so that we can live the will of the Father. (Luke 14:26-27) Without this radical attitude, we cannot overcome sin, and cannot be Jesus' disciples.

Our life in Christ is a journey and each day God is working to draw us closer to Him. Sin can derail us, yet in the mercy of our Lord, we may turn back to Him to be reconciled. His mercy and forgiveness is beyond our understanding. We must pray and strive to obey the Lord. As disciples, we cooperate with the Lord to help others encounter Jesus and experience freedom from sin and the endless toil of the world. Today, is a new day. Let us begin again and stay on the path to being the Lord's disciples.

From Msgr. Frank Chiodo

Friends,

I wanted to give you some first impressions of the new bishop. The diocese sponsored a “meet and greet” the day the new bishop was announced. I had met him on a few occasions and so we were not strangers. He remembered me by name—a fact that caught me off guard—and his warm and friendly demeanor was impressive. He seems to be a humble man, a professor of philosophy at Loras College in Dubuque, a man of deep faith and love for Christ and His church. He serves as spiritual director for many seminarians in Dubuque—and is known by several former Loras students in Des Moines. They all speak very highly of him. His name is Bishop (elect) William Joensen. Let’s pray for him as he prepares to become our chief shepherd. His Installation and Ordination as a Bishop is Sept. 27th. Interestingly, our parish will be the first time he will preside at the Sacrament of Confirmation—the 28th.

I will be at Mundelein Seminary in Chicago until Friday. I will be attending the annual Deliverance Conference with Fr. Higgins.

God bless you.
