FAITH FORMATION

Dear Friends,

In today's scripture the Lord isn't just speaking to Israel, he is also speaking to us when He says, "So in future, House of Israel, I shall judge each of you by what that person does -- declares the Lord Yahweh. Repent, renounce all your crimes, avoid all occasions for guilt. Shake off all the crimes you have committed, and make yourselves a new heart and a new spirit! Why die, House of Israel? I take no pleasure in the death of anyone -- declares the Lord Yahwey - so repent and live!" (Ezekiel 18:1-10, 13, 30-32)

His message to us is direct and important and somewhat sobering. It's shouldn't be missed when the Lord says that He takes no pleasure in anyone's death. Meaning, he doesn't want anyone to go to hell. He asks us, "Why die?" He instructs us to repent and to renounce all our crimes. Wow. Is there any sin worth an eternity of damnation? God is merciful and loves us so much that He wants to forgive us. So, let's trust His mercy and His love for us and make it a practice to turn from our sin, renounce it and go to confession. Oh, how beautiful to be free of the bondage of sin and to be in a right relationship with the Father through His Son Jesus. This is how we can be heaven minded and open to the still small voice of the Lord--To walk in the Spirit of the Lord.

Each day is a new day to begin again. Keep trying as you go on your journey. Turn from any and all sin with a desire to know the will of God. This is the choice we all have. To choose God is to reject sin and the all that is in the world--a "first step." Pray for one another because none of us are we free from temptation. Feed your mind with things from above and the journey will be a whole lot easier. I would encourage you to listen to Monsignor's homilies and Heart's Journey messages, which can be found in the App, Enews and Facebook. Share these messages to help others.

From Msgr. Frank Chiodo

Friends,

Hard to believe the State Fair is coming to an end. This always presages the coming of the new school year. Our school enrollment is up this year, and we are looking forward to another great year under the leadership of Ms. Raes and the excellent school staff and faculty. Say a prayer for the students and staff that the Holy Spirit may enlighten their lives with His wisdom, love and peace.

Family Festival is scheduled for September 8th. A great schedule of activities in store, entertainment, Italian, Hispanic and Vietnamese food and song, rides for the kids, dancing and fun for the whole parish family. Plan to join us.

Have a blessed week.

Msgr. Frank Chiodo
