FAITH FORMATION

Catechetical Sunday

The word "catechesis" means "to echo." Literally, we are to echo the good news of Jesus Christ to the world. This is not a suggestion; it is a command of our Lord. Some people are called and set apart in our communities as catechists, those formally trained and charged with passing on the Gospel to children and adults, inside and outside of our communities. On Catechetical Sunday, we acknowledge them and remind ourselves of the need for formation and growth in all of us. To be a catechist is a privileged calling, and today be sure to say "thank you" to one in your community.

However, it would be wrong on this day to only look to those bearing the NAME of catechist for an echoing of good news. ALL of us are called to echo and share the Gospel message. Parents are the first and primary catechists in a child's life. But we also are important catechists in the lives of our coworkers, our spouses, our relatives, and our friends. Some say catechesis begins in the home, and while that is true, it carries with it a parent/child connotation. But where does catechesis really begin? It begins in the HEART. This year on Catechetical Sunday, may your heart be moved to motivate you to share with others the good news of Jesus Christ.

From Msgr. Frank Chiodo

Friends,

A parish group of faithful ladies has formed a group called “The Seven Sisters.”

The seven ladies commit themselves to an hour of prayer before the Blessed Sacrament every week to pray for the priests of our parish. I personally am so very grateful for the blessing of being prayed for in a specific and intentional way. Priests too are fallible, flawed and have their share of failures, and knowing we are being held up before the throne of the Savior in prayer before His eucharistic presence is reassuring. I can sometimes sense in a deep way the prayers offered for me. Thanks, sisters. You are a great treasure to your priests.

Thanks to all who worked the festival and made it a success. Our parish family is bountifully blessed when we gather for prayer and fellowship, food and fun. Thanks too for those who attended. A special thank you to Marilu Mendez and team for coordinating this event.

Thanks to Jim O'Donnell and the Knights who organized our third annual golf outing. At the writing of this, it looks like it will be another huge success for our parish. God bless all those who worked the outing or golfed.

This Sunday is Catechetical Sunday. We bless those responsible for our catechists and our coordinator, Chris Corrice. You are rendering a service that has eternal consequences. We agree forever grateful to our catechetical team.

Have a Blessed week.

Msgr. Frank Chiodo
