ADULT AND YOUTH

Hello Parents!

It's exciting to begin sharing with you the theme for this year that I mentioned last time. For the next several months we'll be focusing on Discerning God's Will in YOUR life. What is God's will for your life? What are your thoughts? To be kind to others, raise good Catholic children, go to mass. Yes, doing God's will definitely involves those things. But what is God's will for you specifically? Don't feel discouraged if you honestly aren't sure. This is the reason we are journeying together to find this answer.

How did parents in the Bible learn what God's will was for them? Let's take notice of an interesting example. Please open your Bible to 1 Samuel chapter 1:1-8. (page 305 in the parish Bible) Hannah was one of two wives of Elkanah. She had tried for years to become pregnant, but had been unable. Her fellow wife was very fruitful, and was terrible to Hannah because she was barren. Having children was seen as a blessing from God.

What was Hannah going to do? Was she going to give up and stop asking God to be blessed with children? What was His will for her? Let's continue reading verses 9 to chapter 2:11. Hannah kept praying. She felt certain God's will for her was to bear a son. In fact, so strong were her feelings that she told God she would offer her son up to Him in service all the days of his life! So, now Hannah is discerning God's will for both her AND her future unborn son!

If you've finished reading, you know this story has a happy ending. Hannah is indeed blessed with a great son, Samuel, the last judge of Israel. He was used by God to accomplish His will in the nation of Israel. He lived a long life and loved God.

FROM MONSIGNOR FRANK CHIDO, PASTOR

Friends,

The cold days of winter are upon us and I pray for our safety. Stay warm.

This Monday I will be leaving for a few weeks. Fr. Dolan and Fr Reynaldo and our senior priests will be here to care for your spiritual needs. May the next few weeks be a blessing to all of us.

At this writing great plans are shaping up for The Roaring 20's Event for the School. Thanks to the team that sponsored and worked the event. This kind of event is a great community builder. Great work, team.

God Bless you for a Grace filled week.

FAITH FORMATION

What can we learn from Hannah? Certainly, persistence is something that stands out here. Don't stop praying! God might be leading you towards an important decision. It might be a decision regarding having children or more children.

Do you think God might be indicating to you He wants you to have more children? Don't be afraid to talk it over with your spouse and come together and converse with the Lord.

Persistent prayer works!

Until next time,
Your fellow servant,
Chris
