FROM MONSIGNOR CHIDO, PASTOR

My Fellow Pilgrims on the road to Calvary and the Cross,

The holiest week of the year has dawned. This year we are being called to experience in a new and more dramatic way, the Way of the Cross. Now we can identify even more closely with Christ the fear, loneliness, abandonment, desolation, pain, suffering He endured on His way to His death. As we spiritually accompany Him, we must never lose sight of the fact that he never abandons us—especially when we unite our sufferings to His.

We will observe the Holy Triduum together on line. The Holy Spirit will unite us as we open our hearts and minds to the power poured forth on these holiest of days.

On Holy Thursday—we celebrate the institution of the Holy Eucharist. This year—being deprived of physically receiving Communion—I am sure the Lord will touch us in a new way through our prayers on this day—enabling us to appreciate in a deeper way the power of His presence in the Blessed Sacrament

On Good Friday we stand on Calvary to hear the cry of our Savior, “Father forgive them, they know not what they do.” It is all too true that so many times we have failed to recognize and acknowledge our sins—our offenses, our negligence.

On Holy Saturday we stand outside the tomb of the Savior awaiting the power of His resurrection.

Easter Sunday opens the tomb on a God who is alive, and present to us in the present.

We have a God whose name is Jesus. His name should be on our hearts and lips—thanking Him especially this Easter—in advance—for the new life He is giving us as we rise above this pandemic crisis and begin a new life—a better and more faith filled life. A life with hope in the fact that our future rests in our placing ourselves in the nail scarred hands of the Risen Savior.

May this Holy Week be the best ever.
