FROM MONSIGNOR CHIDO, PASTOR

Dear Family,

Special thanks to Tom and Wendy Ogden for the beautiful donation of the statue of St. Francis, which is on the north side of the church. Take a look at the statue and offer a prayer to St. Francis for peace over our land and our world.

Thank you to all who organized and participated in the Prayer Rally on Saturday. It is an important time to gather for prayer and thanksgiving and to petition the Lord to heal our land. Let us keep up the effort to pray for our nation. Thank you also to those who organized the Food Sale for the seminarians in El Salvador. We continue to pray for vocations to the priesthood.

Most merciful and loving God, we trust in your love and mercy and ask for your protection over our families, church and nation. Please grant our nation peace. Forgive us for our sins against innocent life and your natural law. Forgive us for not keeping your Sabbath Day Holy and guide our hearts and minds to seek your Perfect Will in all that we do. We praise you and thank you. Through our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ. ~ Amen

Mgr. Frank E. Chido

What's Holding You Back?
Part I

Hello Parents!

This month in confirmation students will examine this vital question, and we also must ponder it as well. Last month we discussed God's dream for you and me and our children, to become the best version of ourselves, the persons God created us to be. But because of our fallen nature, the disordered desires that exist in all of us, living our best life is a challenge. Paul wrote in Romans 7:19: "I do not do the good I want, but the evil I do not want is what I do."

God created us with the desire to be happy....forever. The culture tries to sell us a poor substitute: pleasure. Our world says pleasure and happiness are the same thing. IT'S A LIE. God does want us to experience much pleasure in life. But the difference between pleasure and happiness is this: Pleasure cannot be sustained beyond the activity producing it. For example, when we eat, we feel pleasure. Stop eating, and the pleasure stops. That's why we don't stop eating. Seventy-five percent of the time when we are eating we are not actually hungry. But we like the pleasure of eating, so we keep eating - that is the only way to maintain the pleasure. Pleasure cannot be sustained beyond the activity producing it.

Happiness is different. Happiness is sustainable. When I make the decision to spend time with God in prayer or scripture or some other spiritual pursuit, I feel happy. The happiness I feel from drawing closer to God lasts beyond the time I spend doing it. I have an inner peace and contentment. It's similar to when instead of sitting in front of the tv and wasting my evening watching Netflix or sports I spend some time exercising. The time after I exercise I still feel good, tho maybe sore later!

So what will really make you happy? Come back in two weeks! Watch the videos for this month at dynamiccatholic.com/confirmation/program-view/session-2. Discuss them with your spouse and your children.

Your fellow servant in Christ,
Chris Corrice
