MONSIGNOR CHIODO, PASTOR

Friends,

Next weekend is one of the biggest weekends for St. Anthony. The Corpus Christi procession has been a trademark since 1913, when thousands assembled along the streets of the old southside to hail and praise the Lord Jesus, present in the Most Blessed Sacrament. Come and join us at 11am to celebrate bilingual Mass at our Grotto, followed by procession which stops at five houses along the route for prayer and benediction. Afterwards the Pillar of the Parish awards will be conferred and food for all. I hope to see you there.

June 13th is the feast of St. Anthony. Our Hispanic brothers and sisters are providing food and music throughout the day. After the 11-o clock Mass we will process the statue of St. Anthony to the Grotto where we will pray the litany in honor of St. Anthony.

I want to mention a grave concern of mine. Over the past few years, a considerable number of our parish family have died and have been buried without the benefit of a funeral Mass. While I understand some concerns about funerals, I want to emphasize the criticalness of offering Holy Mass for the repose of the soul of our loved ones. Countless stories are told by the saints and others of deceased souls thanking those who had Mass offered for them, releasing them from Purgatory. Also, a funeral Mass is the most perfect way to thank the Lord for the gift of the loved one—now departed. Give it some thought—and prayer.

We are entering into summertime. Be safe, be prayerful, be filled with the Holy Spirit.

Mgr. Frank E. Chiodo

Moving Forward Unitedly in Accomplishing God's Will

Hello Parents!

This is my final letter to you at St Anthony's. I am truly humbled by the hard work I have seen many of you undertake on behalf of your young ones. St Paul's letter to the Galatians 6:9 promises you: "So let us not become tired of doing good; for if we do not give up, the time will come when we will reap the harvest." And what a harvest of young ones there are at St Anthony's! I have been so blessed to get to know so many spiritually minded and hard working young ones. It has been a joy to see many of them develop into teachers serving the Church!

My thoughts and feelings echo St Paul when he was called by God to his next assignment in Acts 20: 24, 31, 32 35-37: "24 But I reckon my own life to be worth nothing to me; I only want to complete my mission and finish the work that the Lord Jesus gave me to do, which is to declare the Good News about the grace of God. 31 Watch, then, and remember that with many tears, day and night, I taught every one of you for three years. 32 "And now I commend you to the care of God and to the message of his grace, which is able to build you up and give you the blessings God has for all his people. 35 I have shown you in all things that by working hard in this way we must help the weak, remembering the words that the Lord Jesus himself said, 'There is more happiness in giving than in receiving.'" 36 When Paul finished, he knelt down with them and prayed. 37 They were all crying as they hugged him and kissed him good-bye."

Thank you for being my friends, my family, and my fellow workers in Christ. Thank you for your encouragement and support. Thank you Melissa and Jimmy, Marilu and Diana. Thank you faithful catechists and ministry workers. Please continue to strengthen each other. Work hard towards the parish vision and unity. Show love and affection for each other. Support Monsignor, Fr Dolan, and Fr Reynaldo and the staff. I want to specially thank Monsignor for encouraging me to grow spiritually over the years and to not compromise on my vision of education for the parish. Thank you Fr Dan for giving me the opportunity to serve this great and historic parish.

In closing, pray with me the prayer we have prayed so many times....Dear Jesus, in everything I say, and in everything I do, in everything today may it glorify YOU!

Amen and amen. Forever your fellow worker in Christ,

Chris Corrice

CATECHISM HIGHLIGHTS

Topic: The Holy Spirit Makes Present the Mystery of Christ

1101 The Holy Spirit gives a spiritual understanding of the Word of God to those who read or hear it, according to the dispositions of their hearts. By means of the words, actions, and symbols that form the structure of a celebration, the Spirit puts both the faithful and the ministers into a living relationship with Christ, the Word and Image of the Father, so that they can live out the meaning of what they hear, contemplate, and do in the celebration.

1102 By the saving word of God, faith...is nourished in the hearts of believers. By this faith then the congregation of the faithful begins and grows. The proclamation does not stop with a teaching; it elicits the response of faith as consent and commitment, directed at the covenant between God and his people. Once again it is the Holy Spirit who gives the grace of faith, strengthens it and makes it grow in the community. The liturgical assembly is first of all a communion in faith.

1104 Christian liturgy not only recalls the events that saved us but actualizes them, makes them present. The Paschal mystery of Christ is celebrated, not repeated. It is the celebrations that are repeated, and in each celebration there is an outpouring of the Holy Spirit that makes the unique mystery present.
