FR. GUTHRIE DOLAN

Dear Brothers and Sisters,

Thank you to Marilu Mendez and all those who worked to make the St. Anthony Feast Day great! We appreciate all your hard work.

Today we celebrate the greatest gift Jesus Christ has given to His Church - the Holy Eucharist - the gift of His Body and Blood given under the appearance of bread and wine. This gift, received worthily, transforms the believer by grace to be more like Christ - a "little Christ" - and unites all those who receive together into Christ's one body, the Church.

We celebrate this gift today by bringing the Holy Eucharist to our neighborhood, so that our community may know what we believe and be transformed by the presence of the Body of Christ.

Concurrent with the gift of the Holy Eucharist, Christ Himself consecrated the Apostles to sacrifice their lives to faithfully administer this gift. In union with the Bishops, the Priests of the Church celebrate this mystery every day, always seeking to conform themselves to the mysteries they serve, which they were commissioned to do the day they were ordained by the bishop.

Today we celebrate with Bishop Joensen, the high priest of the Diocese. We celebrate also a priest near and dear to our hearts, our beloved pastor and native son Msgr. Frank Chiodo, who has served well these last 46 years and who is retiring from running our parish. In honoring Msgr. Chiodo, we honor Christ who has loved us to give us these gifts.

Msgr. Chiodo, we love you and thank you for your priesthood and your fifteen years as our pastor. We know this isn't goodbye, but you will be missed. As you have said to so many people, you'll always find a home at St. Anthony's.

Fr. Guthrie Dolan
Parochial Vicar

ADORATION

CATECHISM MEDITATIONS

Topic: Universal Sacrament of Salvation

774 The Greek word mysterion was translated into Latin by two terms: mystenum and sacramentum. In later usage the term sacramentum emphasizes the visible sign of the hidden reality of salvation which was indicated by the term mysterium. In this sense, Christ himself is the mystery of salvation: "For there is no other mystery of God, except Christ."¹⁹⁶ The saving work of his holy and sanctifying humanity is the sacrament of salvation, which is revealed and active in the Church's sacraments (which the Eastern Churches also call "the holy mysteries"). The seven sacraments are the signs and instruments by which the Holy Spirit spreads the grace of Christ the head throughout the Church which is his Body. The Church, then, both contains and communicates the invisible grace she signifies. It is in this analogical sense, that the Church is called a "sacrament."

775 "The Church, in Christ, is like a sacrament - a sign and instrument, that is, of communion with God and of unity among all men."¹⁹⁷ The Church's first purpose is to be the sacrament of the inner union of men with God. Because men's communion with one another is rooted in that union with God, the Church is also the sacrament of the unity of the human race. In her, this unity is already begun, since she gathers men "from every nation, from all tribes and peoples and tongues";¹⁹⁸ at the same time, the Church is the "sign and instrument" of the full realization of the unity yet to come.

776 As sacrament, the Church is Christ's instrument. "She is taken up by him also as the instrument for the salvation of all," "the universal sacrament of salvation," by which Christ is "at once manifesting and actualizing the mystery of God's love for men."¹⁹⁹ The Church "is the visible plan of God's love for humanity," because God desires "that the whole human race may become one People of God, form one Body of Christ, and be built up into one temple of the Holy Spirit."²⁰⁰
