Providing school supplies for children in the nation's distressed communities

World Vision®

SchoolTools gives at-risk children in the United States the opportunity to engage in learning, which sets the foundation for a brighter future.