Small Group Discussion Notes
Multiply – Week 6
Multiplying Generosity
November 1, 2026
Pastor David Miles

Warm Up
Share a time when someone was generous toward you.

Digging Deeper
Read Luke 12:13-21

Use the following inductive Bible study steps to explore this passage.

1. Observe – What do you notice in the text…What is the context? What is happening? Who are the characters? What ideas or words are being repeated? Spend time asking these types of questions
2. Interpret – What is being said in the text…What is being communicated? Why is this passage important? What is the meaning of this passage? Take time to ask questions that go beyond observation and dig deeper into the text.
3. Apply – What do I do with this information…How does this impact my life? How does this impact my understanding of who God is? What can I take from this text and apply to my daily circumstances? Ask questions that get personal and help you to apply what you have learned.

What are some other passages of scripture that speak to the importance of generosity?

What does it mean/look like to be generous toward God? Why is generosity toward God important?

Read Mark 12:41-44

What do you think led the widow to give so sacrificially?

How does the idea of giving generously and sacrificially connect with Jesus' overall call to take up our cross and follow after him?

Next Steps
How does giving sacrificially change the way you approach life and your relationship with God?

Read 2 Corinthians 9:6-7

Do you consider yourself a cheerful giver? If not, what holds you back from giving cheerfully?

Read Matthew 6:19-24

In Matthew 6, we are warned against serving two masters, God and money. When do you find yourself most tempted to serve the pursuit of money over the pursuit of God?

What questions do you and/or your family need to ask and pray about when it comes to giving generously and sacrificially?

What promises in scripture can give us confidence and peace of mind when it comes to giving generously and sacrificially?

Final Thoughts
To give sacrificially, with cheer and a heart of generosity, requires faith. Take time this week to pray for the Lord to increase your faith so that you might trust him with all he has given you to steward.
