

Sermon Based Questions for February 4, 2018

- 1) Have you ever been faced with opposition because of your faith? Have you ever been ridiculed? Have you ever been threatened? How did you respond? How should you have responded?
- 2) Why should we expect opposition if we are engaged in a work of God? (See the first 3 bullet points in the sermon for help)
- 3) Why is ridicule such an effective form of opposition?
- 4) How did Nehemiah respond to ridicule and how should we as well?
- 5) Why is prayer so important, even if God chooses not to remove the opposition?
- 6) Do you agree that prayer should be accompanied by action on our part? Why or why not? Did Nehemiah model this in CH. 4?
- 7) Why are weaknesses, fears & insecurities also a form of opposition?
- 8) How should one deal with opposition that comes from within our own families, friends, church?
- 9) How does the armor of God in Ephesians 6:1-18 help us deal with opposition? Be specific

Sermon Based Questions for February 4, 2018

- 1) Have you ever been faced with opposition because of your faith? Have you ever been ridiculed? Have you ever been threatened? How did you respond? How should you have responded?
- 2) Why should we expect opposition if we are engaged in a work of God? (See the first 3 bullet points in the sermon for help)
- 3) Why is ridicule such an effective form of opposition?
- 4) How did Nehemiah respond to ridicule and how should we as well?
- 5) Why is prayer so important, even if God chooses not to remove the opposition?
- 6) Do you agree that prayer should be accompanied by action on our part? Why or why not? Did Nehemiah model this in CH. 4?
- 7) Why are weaknesses, fears & insecurities also a form of opposition?
- 8) How should one deal with opposition that comes from within our own families, friends, church?
- 9) How does the armor of God in Ephesians 6:1-18 help us deal with opposition? Be specific