

Sermon Based Questions – Wisdom at Work

- 1) Read Proverbs 1:1-7. What sticks out about these introductory verses?
- 2) In vs. 7 it says, “The fear of the Lord is the beginning of knowledge...” What does the “fear of the Lord” mean?
- 3) Have you ever found yourself in a place where you threw up your hands & said “I just don’t know what to do?” Where did you turn and why?
- 4) The Word of God is an instruction manual for life, in what ways have you used it as such?
- 5) Have you ever read the book of Proverbs before? If so, what did you learn from it? What do you hope to learn from it in this sermon series?
- 6) What is appealing to you about what Proverbs 2:1-12a declares? In order to reap the benefits that these verses declare, what is required?
- 7) What does it mean to be a fool? How do you think the book of Proverbs serves as a way to prevent you from acting like a fool?
- 8) What is one area of life that you hope the book of Proverbs addresses? Do a search (google search or with a concordance) and see if that topic is found in this book.
- 9) Read Proverbs 3:5-7. What do these verses mean in reference to putting the book of Proverbs into practice?
- 10) Will you take the September Proverbs challenge (read one chapter a day for the whole month)? Why or why not? If you do, what do you hope to get out of it?

Sermon Based Questions – Wisdom at Work

- 1) Read Proverbs 1:1-7. What sticks out about these introductory verses?
- 2) In vs. 7 it says, “The fear of the Lord is the beginning of knowledge...” What does the “fear of the Lord” mean?
- 3) Have you ever found yourself in a place where you threw up your hands & said “I just don’t know what to do?” Where did you turn and why?
- 4) The Word of God is an instruction manual for life, in what ways have you used it as such?
- 5) Have you ever read the book of Proverbs before? If so, what did you learn from it? What do you hope to learn from it in this sermon series?
- 6) What is appealing to you about what Proverbs 2:1-12a declares? In order to reap the benefits that these verses declare, what is required?
- 7) What does it mean to be a fool? How do you think the book of Proverbs serves as a way to prevent you from acting like a fool?
- 8) What is one area of life that you hope the book of Proverbs addresses? Do a search (google search or with a concordance) and see if that topic is found in this book.
- 9) Read Proverbs 3:5-7. What do these verses mean in reference to putting the book of Proverbs into practice?
- 10) Will you take the September Proverbs challenge (read one chapter a day for the whole month)? Why or why not? If you do, what do you hope to get out of it?