

Make Us One

Our New Year's resolutions should be in light of the events of Christmas!

Community is essential to living lives in response to what Christ did for us.

Acts 2:42-47 ESV

We are called to live responding to Jesus' initiative.

The first response of the early church was to devote themselves to the apostles teaching.

The church had a true devotion to learning and building community and it was not just a phase.

The next response was devotion to fellowship, the breaking of bread, and prayers.

The time the early church spent together was intentional in their goals of community and serving God, and so should we!

When a true community is build, even non-believers will notice and want to know what is going on.

Verses 44-45 talk about the early church and communal living.

This does not mean we should all move into BRC!

The church was generous and selfless.

Persecution brought their community closer together rather than tearing it apart.

True community takes a time investment!

We are quick to offer our time to so many other activities while putting our church community a low priority.

Spending time with your Christian community is essential!

As they grew closer as a community, God grew their numbers daily.

When people saw what God was doing in the early church, others wanted to experience the same joy.

We can see the same community principles modeled by Jesus.

While Jesus did reach out to everybody, He desired to have a close group of friends to share deeper parts of His life with.

What do teenagers think church community means?

Mission trips are an awesome opportunity to ignite a community.

We can't do life the way God intended on our own, that's why He gave us community.
