

Prayer Concerns

Since we are blessed this week to not have any specific prayer concerns, we want to take some time to lift up our graduates in prayer.

Also, as the restrictions are starting to get lifted we want to pray for the leadership of our city, state, and country to make the correct decisions.

And last, but not least, we ask that you keep our consistory in your prayers as we make decisions for the future re-opening of our church building.

Continue faithful in prayer for those with ongoing health concerns: Rhonda Blauser, Biagio Boytim, Marie Buser, Cora Carroll, Bob Cooperrider, Rick Demeter, Nancy & Bob Hanwell, Rose Murray, Eileen Raich, Gini Reinke, Kathy Rogoff, Margaret Zapotechne & Steve Zapotechne. Continue to pray for our military personnel.

Belgic Confession

Article 7: The Sufficiency of Scripture

We believe that this Holy Scripture contains the will of God completely and that everything one must believe to be saved is sufficiently taught in it.

For since the entire manner of service which God requires of us is described in it at great length, no one--even an apostle or an angel from heaven, as Paul says--ought to teach other than what the Holy Scriptures have already taught us.

For since it is forbidden to add to or to subtract from the Word of God, this plainly demonstrates that the teaching is perfect and complete in all respects.

Therefore we must not consider human writings--no matter how holy their authors may have been--equal to the divine writings; nor may we put custom, nor the majority, nor age, nor the passage of times or persons, nor councils, decrees, or official decisions above the truth of God, for truth is above everything else.
