

Sermon Title: Sharing the gospel in a hostile environment.

Acts 1:8b "...and you will be my witnesses in Jerusalem and in all Judea and Samaria, and to the end of the earth."

1) Tell us a little about your background and family. Was there anything that may have led you into foreign missions from a young age.

2) How long have you been in foreign missions, and what led you to where you are serving today?

3) Where are you a missionary and take some time to talk about some of the major differences between the US and where you are serving?

4) What is one (or more) thing/s that God has taught you in your time in the Middle East?

5) "Most people around you are not Christians, nor come from a Christian background. Even here it can feel like the people around us believe differently than we do - whether it's secularism/humanism, or even people from a different religion altogether. What does it look like to lovingly and effectively witness to Muslims who have completely different world views, without ruining relationships or making people upset?"

6) What can we as a church be doing to support you other
